

THE ARGUS

Lakehead University's Student Newspaper

Any student, after having submitted and subsequently had published: three (3) unpaid articles totaling 1,500 combined printed words (where the article was not an opinion or letter to the editor), three (3) photographs, three (3) illustrations and/or comics, or has contributed at least ten (10) hours of volunteer work during the publication year, is entitled to apply for membership with the Argus.

Members gain access to benefits including a paid honourarium for each published article, as well as becoming an official representative of the newspaper, allowing the member press access to events throughout the city.

Application Requirements

To apply, you must submit:

- This completed application form.
- A letter to the Argus Executive requesting admission. The letter must be written formally, and should outline your contribution to the newspaper thus far as well as what you expect to contribute by way of your membership.
